DETAILED ACTION

Claims 35, 43 and 44-47 are pending. Group IV, claims 35 and 43 have been elected for prosecution on the merits, claims 32-34 and 36-42 have been cancelled without traverse, and new claims 44-47 have been added in this communication filed 5/12/08 entered as Response to Election/Restriction Requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 35 and 43, drawn to receiving a transaction request, receiving an authorization message, receiving by the portable device from a remote party and relaying to the ATM by the portable device and examining the authorization message for validity, classified in class 705, subclass 35.
- II. Claims 44-47, drawn to receiving from a portable device carried by an ATM customer a request to conduct an ATM transaction, receiving from the portable device carried by the ATM customer a transaction authorization message, examining the authorization message, and executing the requested ATM transaction without obtaining any additional transaction authorization message from an authorization center of a financial institution, classified in class 705, subclass 43.

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Invention I does not have receiving from a portable device carried by an ATM customer a request to conduct an ATM transaction, receiving from the portable device carried by the ATM customer a transaction authorization message, examining the authorization message, and executing the requested ATM transaction without obtaining any additional transaction authorization message from an authorization center of a financial institution and Invention II does not have receiving a transaction request, receiving an authorization message, receiving by the portable device from a remote party and relaying to the ATM by the portable device and examining the authorization message for validity. The subcombination has separate utility such as Invention I can be used for receiving messages from any remote device and Invention II can be used for accessing any portable device that is capable of being carried and can receive messages, such as a PDA or a laptop computer where WIFI is present.

Art Unit: 3696

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
